FAQ

- What's the international tax charge? The charge is essentially the cost incurred when shipping between countries to allow for value differentiation in each market.
- What's the international tax charge? A flat service fee of $50 applies per order to cover cross-border processing and coordination between facilities.
- How does this impact me? You will see an international service charge on your invoice, determined by where the shipment is going, and depending on our local registrations. For European Union countries, you will be charged 21%. For the UK, CH, and NO you will be charged according to their local variance rates – UK: 20%; CH: 8.1%; and NO: 25%. Currently, the scope of the Global PO Solution is limited to European Union countries, plus the United Kingdom, Norway, and Switzerland.
- All North American Simply Global customer invoices will be in USD.
- How do I submit a Simply Global PO? The good news is that it's just as simple as a domestic order! The only difference will be the need for a complete ship-to address, including country, as well as clear contact information for any questions regarding your order.
